
Edge International Global Survey of Partner Compensation

Featured in the June 2018 edition of the Edge International Communiqué

By Nick Jarrett-Kerr

Every few years, Edge International carries out a short global survey of partner compensation in law firms. It was very much the brainchild of our late and much-missed colleague Ed Wesemann, assisted by Nick Jarrett-Kerr.

Over the last twelve years it has been interesting to track the trends across the world as firms have steadily adopted a more nuanced approach in most jurisdictions than purely formulaic systems or fixed lockstep.

We are planning to run the survey again in late 2018, so please watch out for it. Meanwhile links to the 2012 and 2015 surveys are as follows:

- The Edge International 2012 Global Partner Compensation System Survey
- The Edge International 2015 Global Partner Compensation System Survey